Volume 19 - Issue 10

October 2024

Welcome To Paradise!

It's that time of year again.
Time for ghosts, goblins,
& g-strings.

October isn't just about
Halloween, but also Fantasy Fest!

This 10 day event is when you'll see things you can't post on social media and you won't tell your co-workers about when you get home!

Enjoy!

LEZ GO OUT

Everyone knows about the iconic festival that has helped make Key West infamous for risqué frivolity, costumes and mostly naked but creatively painted bodies riding a theme so hard that it explodes all over the island. This is Fantasy Fest and if you haven't heard of it, I'm not sure you're conscious. However, a lesser known and historic festival called Goombay happens just before the latex and glitter take over.

Goombay is the first official event that kicks off Fantasy Fest here in Key West. It is free and family friendly which is a huge draw for those looking to share the 10 day festival with family. You'll find local artists featuring the Bahamian culture, music, food and history that shapes our island's past and present. Located in Bahama Village, there is a daytime street fair with some of the most incredible Bahamian dishes and to find it you just follow your nose as the wonderful smell of spices and grilling cover a great distance. Some of the food features are conch fritters, jerk chicken and the incredible cracked conch which has to be tried to truly say you've experienced Goombay. The music you'll hear stems from calypso to reggae and there are plenty of opportunities to dance day and night. There is a parade filled with costumes and culturally historic dress showcasing the rich and colorful heritage of the islanders who founded Key West. It starts at noon on October 18th and goes until midnight for a full day of good clean fun. Head to the corner of Petronia & Emma Street which is walkable from Duval and you'll find it without trouble.

LEZ GO OUT

If good clean fun ISN'T what you came to Key West for... have no fear. Your kink is welcome and this year the theme is 90's Neon Cosmic Carnival. From October 18-27 there are numerous public and homegrown events that you will find as you make new friends and spy upside down pineapples all over town. Go to www.fantasyfest.com/schedule/ for the full schedule of fun and craziness. I love the logo and sincerely hope there are tshirts. I cover my body because I'm prudish but will come down to watch the debauchery to satisfy my voyeuristic side. Just be careful, if you're like me and prefer to enjoy things as a wallflower, you never know when someone will find your cute little shy self and invite you to join their party... for the night. The 'come as you are' and anything goes' rule book is never more visible and celebrated than during Fantasy Fest which is highlighted by parades, costumed events, shows, musicals, ghost tours, Robert The Doll (which is a whole other article unto itself) a fundraiser to crown a Fantasy Fest King & Queen which benefits the Florida Keys SPCA and so much more that isn't fit to print.

October 24th, is an event that is not to be missed - the Headdress Ball. Locals and visitors create absolutely amazing and sometimes interactive headdresses, hats, whole cities that fit on their heads and present them to an audience and judges with local notoriety in a contest to win first prize. This is a huge part of the fundraising activities as tables go for $320 for 4 people to benefit the Florida Keys SPCA. Randy Roberts is a local celebrity, female impersonator and the host of this years contest! This year is going to be one for the books so get your tickets early or get started on your headdress submission stat!!

Because anything goes, Lez Go Out and celebrate the historic, strange, unique, and absolutely wild side of the island. See you out there under neon lights in a carnival rocking emo vibes and making unforgettable memories in Key West together!

No matter where life takes you,

KEEP BEING YOU.

Because HIV doesn't change who you are.

BIKTARVY* is a complete, 1-pill, once-a-day prescription medicine used to treat HIV-1 in certain adults. BIKTARVY does not cure HIV-1 or AIDS.

Ask your healthcare provider if BIKTARVY is right for you.

IMPORTANT FACTS FOR BIKTARVY®

This is only a brief summary of important information about BIKTARVY® and does not replace talking to your healthcare provider about your condition and your treatment.

(bik-TAR-vee)

MOST IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT BIKTARVY

BIKTARVY may cause serious side effects, including:

▶ Worsening of hepatitis B (HBV) infection. Your healthcare provider will test you for HBV. If you have both HIV-1 and HBV, your HBV may suddenly get worse if you stop taking BIKTARVY. Do not stop taking BIKTARVY without first talking to your healthcare provider, as they will need to check your health regularly for several months, and may give you HBV medicine.

ABOUT BIKTARVY

BIKTARVY is a complete, 1-pill, once-a-day prescription medicine used to treat HIV-1 in adults and children who weigh at least 55 pounds. It can either be used in people who have never taken HIV-1 medicines before, or people who are replacing their current HIV-1 medicines and whose healthcare provider determines they meet certain requirements.

BIKTARVY does not cure HIV-1 or AIDS. HIV-1 is the virus that causes AIDS.

Do NOT take BIKTARVY if you also take a medicine that contains:

- ▶ dofetilide
- ▶ rifampin
- ▶ any other medicines to treat HIV-1

POSSIBLE SIDE EFFECTS OF BIKTARVY

BIKTARVY may cause serious side effects, including:

- ▶ Those in the "Most Important Information About BIKTARVY" section.
- ▶ Changes in your immune system. Your immune system may get stronger and begin to fight infections that may have been hidden in your body.

Tell your healthcare provider if you have any new symptoms after you start taking BIKTARVY.

- ▶ Kidney problems, including kidney failure. Your healthcare provider should do blood and urine tests to check your kidneys. If you develop new or worse kidney problems, they may tell you to stop taking BIKTARVY.
- ▶ Too much lactic acid in your blood (lactic acidosis), which is a serious but rare medical emergency that can lead to death. Tell your healthcare provider right away if you get these symptoms: weakness or being more tired than usual, unusual muscle pain, being short of breath or fast breathing, stomach pain with nausea and vomiting, cold or blue hands and feet, feel dizzy or lightheaded, or a fast or abnormal heartbeat.
- ▶ Severe liver problems, which in rare cases can lead to death. Tell your healthcare provider right away if you get these symptoms: skin or the white part of your eyes turns yellow, dark "tea-colored" urine, light-colored stools, loss of appetite for several days or longer, nausea, or stomach-area pain.
- ▶ The most common side effects of BIKTARVY in clinical studies were diarrhea (6%), nausea (6%), and headache (5%).

These are not all the possible side effects of BIKTARVY. Tell your healthcare provider right away if you have any new symptoms while taking BIKTARVY.

You are encouraged to report negative side effects of prescription drugs to the FDA. Visit www.FDA.gov/medwatch or call 1-800-FDA-1088.

Your healthcare provider will need to do tests to monitor your health before and during treatment with BIKTARVY.

"THE RAINBOW AGE OF TELEVISION: AN OPINIONATED HISTORY OF QUEER TV"

BY SHAYNA MACI WARNER

c.2024, Abrams Press | $28.00 | 304 pages

Wanna hand over the clicker?

You don't want to miss the season premiere of that show you binge-watched over the summer. You're invested, a fan who can't wait to see what happens next. You heard that this may be the last season and you'll be sad, if that's so. Is it time to start looking for another, newer obsession or will you want to read "The Rainbow Age of Television" by Shayna Maci Warner, and find something old?

Like most kids of the '70s, '80s, and '90s, Shayna Maci Warner spent lots of time glued to a television screen, devouring programming before school, after school, and all summer long. For Warner, that programming eventually led to a revelation. They saw people that looked like them, for which they formed "a personal attachment."

It was "life-changing..."

It didn't happen all at once, and some of TV's "milestones" are forever lost, since broadcasts were live until the 1950s. Shortly after shows were taped and preserved, homosexuality became a "source of worry and blunt fascination" but certain performers carefully presented gently risqué characters and dialog that nudged and winked at viewers.

Some queer representation appeared in the 1960s, but it wasn't until the 1970s when dramas began to feature more gay and lesbian characters, however subtly. It took awhile for "the 'rest' of the alphabet" to be represented in a meaningful way and – despite that Star Trek and its many versions included gender-diverse characters – it wasn't until 1996 that an intersex infant was featured on a regular television drama.

Since Ellen DeGeneres came out practically on her namesake TV show and Will & Grace became a wild hit, queer representation on TV has ceased to be an unusual thing. And yet, programmers and writers know that caution is still warranted: sometimes, "there can still be hesitation around pushing the envelope and fear that a queer character who burns too brightly just won't last."

Quick: name three after-school TV shows that aired when you were in Fourth Grade. If you can't do it, one thing's for certain: you need "The Rainbow Age of Television."

But get ready for some argument. Author Shayna Maci Warner offers a rabid fan's look at the best and the worst queer representation had to offer, and you may beg to differ with what they say about various programs. That makes this book a critique, of sorts, but Warner offers plenty of wiggle-room for argument.

Tussling over the finer points of queer programming, though, is only half the fun of reading this book. Microwave a box of pizza snacks or mac-and-cheese, demand "your" sofa seat, and dive into the nostalgia of old TV shows, most of them from the later last century. Yep, your faves are here. It's like having an oldies channel on paper, and in your hand.

This is a must-have for former kids and current TV addicts who are happy to see themselves represented on TV. If that's you, who brought the chips? "The Rainbow Age of Television" will just click.

MY BIG GAY LIFE

Brad Loekle

DRESS CODE

With Halloween around the corner, I have some ideas on how to really make your costume count this season. Just because most of us aren't full-time drag queens doesn't mean we can't be turnt-out this October. After all, if Trump gets re-elected, they'll probably ban Halloween and rename it "White Jesus Night." So, get your kicks in while you can!

First up, there's always the solid choice of taking any profession or character and making it slutty. Sure, there's the traditional slutty doctor and nurse; but what about some more obscure choices? Where are all my Slutty Skeksis? (That's a Dark Crystal reference if you're not a nerdy Gen X'er.) I want to see some slutty hobbits. You're all out there selling your feet on OnlyFans anyway, so don't be shy at the Halloween party. If you're both lazy and a twink, nothing is easier than Slutty Harry Potter. Just draw a lightning bolt on your forehead and be a trans ally. BAM! You're done!

If you're going to go political, make sure to have fun with it. You attract more votes with sugar than shit. At least that's what we're all hoping for in next month! Might I suggest creating a hybrid costume and go as JD Vance pretending, he's actually as rural as his book. You can call this costume "Hillbilly Vanilli!" Some daisy dukes, too much mascara, mountain dew in a martini glass and you're just as realistic as he is!

If you've put back on some of that Ozempic weight you lost. Or if you're just looking to be comfortable and cool at the same time, just paint a giant cardboard box red, draw some lines on it, poke your head out one end and you too can go as "The First Brick Thrown at Stonewall!" This costume is also really handy for sneaking your own booze, food, drugs, or even a small twink into the Halloween events you go to. Boo-tastic on a budget, Honey!

And finally, if all else fails, just go out wearing your favorite outfit, get hammered with your friends, and if someone asks you what your costume is, just say, "I'm gay. And I'm really committed to my costume."

Brad Loekle's latest comedy special & album, "Brash Boys Club" is available on Amazon, AppleTV, iTunes, and other platforms. He was a semi-finalist on NBC's "Last Comic Standing". He can be seen every week on TruTV's "World's Dumbest", has written for Joan Rivers on E! "Fashion Police" & tours internationally. His book, "My Big Gay Life" is available on Amazon. ASK NANA

E-mail your questions to nana@keywestgayrag.com

Dear Nana,

I'm really into Halloween and my boyfriend isn't at all. For me it's Gay Christmas and for him it's just a huge hassle to even put on a smile more or less a costume. How can I get him more into the Halloween spirit? Or should I just accept that he's a scrooge when it comes to this holiday?

Oh, Pumpkin, it's always hard on couples when one person's yum is another person's yuck. At least if this were just about ass eating, you could see his point from a food safety standard. But this is all of Halloween?! First of all, have you spent any time digging in the graveyard of his youth to see if there's a reason he doesn't have the same spooky feelings as you? For you, Halloween was probably your chance to dress up (you giant, adorable sissy) and get your sugar high on. But maybe for him it was a tense time of year. Maybe his family couldn't afford costumes or candy and so he felt left out? Maybe a bottom shit on his chest in a pumpkin patch once and it's ruined fun-sized snickers for him forever. Whatever it might be, you won't know until you spend more time trying to see Halloween from his perspective. Now, if it turns out he's just a miserable person who hates holidays, well, then you have to come to terms with the fact you're in love with a real fright of a man.

Dear Nana,

My laptop is always somewhat lubey from the silicone lube I use when I masturbate. (To be totally honest, I'm a bit of a goon.) You've helped others in the past with how to get lube spots out of sheets and off walls. Any tips for electronics?

You know, in my day, we didn't have all these lube options. We had spit and bacon grease and we were grateful just to have those! But, nowadays, you kids have your silicone and your hybrid and your water-based lubes. I've seen vegan lube. Which makes me laugh, as an old lady, because you'll eat an ass and swallow loads like a Maytag washing machine, but your lube better not have honey in it! And then there's cruelty-free lube. Which I think all lubes should be because I don't think a bunny should have to suffer just so you can cum smoothly. I'll give you some leeway as silicone lube is the most effective for friction, but sure is a bitch to get out of fabrics and off of floors. If you ever want to kill your partner, and make it look like an accident, I've always thought just spilling some silicone lube near a flight of stairs would do the trick. My only real advise to you is alcohol-based electronics and glass cleaners. It seems to be the only thing that cuts through.

DO YOU HAVE PROBLEMS? OF COURSE YOU DO! WHY NOT LET NANA HELP YOU?!

WHORE--SCOPES

AQUARIUS JAN 20 - FEB 18

It's too late to lose that excess weight before Fantasy Fest. Just go as a circus tent.

PISCES FEB 19 - MAR 20

Just say no to Spandex!

ARIES MAR 21 - APR 19

You light up a room when you leave it.

TAURUS APR 20 - MAY 20

Nabisco wants to name a cookie after you. It's called a Whoreo.

GEMINI MAY 21 - JUN 20

You're sex life is so sad that you're starting to look at the sofa with lustful eyes.

CANCER JUN 21 - JUL 22

If you ever have an intelligent thought, it's going to be very lonely in your head.

LEO JUL 23 - AUG 22

Your weight goal should be one chin.

VIRGO AUG 23 - SEP 22

You must be on fire because when people see you, they stop, drop and roll away!

LIBRA SEP 23 - OCT 22

You're about as useful as a back pocket on a t-shirt.

SCORPIO OCT 23 - NOV 21

If you're standards were any lower, they could clean under the couch.

SAGITTARIUS NOV 22 - DEC 21

Some people are wise. You are otherwise.

CAPRICORN DEC 22 - JAN 19

It's OK to be young and stupid. You're not young so you have no excuse.
